I. Details

Kamhyang-ni Prison:
Mid-May 1955

25X1

2. The Kamhyang-ni Prison is located at YD 374262 (City Plan) in West P'yongyang, approximately one (1) kilometer southwest of the P'yongyang Vehicle Factory, and approximately eight (8) meters south of the newly-established rail tracks running between the West P'yongyang Railroad Station and the P'yongyang Vehicle Factory. To north of this new railroad runs one (1) old tracks, approximately 20 meters from each other, and stands the P'yongyang-si Central Construction Materials Bureau across the old line. During the War, the Japanese-established Sopsong-ni Prison (originally "P'yongyang Prison") underwent severe war damage. In early 1955, this war-torn prison moved to YD 374262 (City Plan) with the new designation "Kamhyang-ni Prison".
3. Supervised by the Prisons Office, the Ministry of Internal Affairs, the Kamhyang-ni Prison is headed by Lieutenant Colonel Kih. (fnu) [redacted], a native of Hamgyong-bukto, under whose direct control there are the Prison Political Chief (name unknown) [redacted] (Major), a native of Hamgyong-bukto, the Prison Rear Chief (name unknown) [redacted] (Major), a native of P'yongan-bukto, and the Camp Guard Battalion Commander (name unknown) [redacted] (Major), a native of Hamgyong-do. The Prison Rear Chief controls the Rear Section, and the Prison Political Chief directs the Deposit Registration Section, the Identity Registration Section, the Labor Section, the Production Section, the Examination Section, the Reformation Section, the Rank & File Section, and the Medical Section. Details of these sections are as follows:
- A. Rear Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain, and consists of approximately seven (7) personnel (directors). Among the functions performed by the Rear Section are (a) the acquisition and management of grains and supplies from the Prison Office; (b) the disposal of prison products; and (c) miscellaneous matter relating to supply affairs.
- B. Deposit Registration Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of Hamgyong-do, and consists of three (3) personnel (clerks), who are assigned (a) to collect and safekeep the belongings of individual prisoners, and (b) to record and safekeep prisoners' "work bonus".
- C. Identity Registration Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of Hamgyong-bukto, and consists of seven (7) personnel (directors) in all. Among the functions conducted by the Identity Registration Section are (a) the recording and safekeeping of prisoners' data, including personal descriptions and finger-prints; (b) the decision of prisoners' roster numbers; (c) the recording of changes in individual prison terms and (d) the safekeeping of prisoners' court decisions (copies).

- D. Labor Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of Kangwon-do, and consists of four (4) "labor-assigning directors." The directors are engaged in establishing standard production quotas, in assigning manpower for production, in fixing the amount of grains for prisoners, and in adjusting labor. Besides these affairs, the directors inspect the individual workshops to see the working conditions of individual prisoners. 25X1
- E. Production Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of Hamgyong-do, and consists of an unknown number of "production directors" and "technical directors", plus a total of five (5) clerks. Among the functions performed by the Production Section are (a) the establishment of final production quotas (based on the standard quotas fixed by the Labor Section); (b) the recording of production results and submission of them to the Rear Section; (c) the acquisition of production means, including tools; (d) the request for increases or decreases in manpower to the Labor Section; and (e) the control and guidance of production activities by "production directors" and "technical directors" at individual workshops. 25X1
- F. Examination Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of Hamgyong-bukto, and consists of three (3) personnel. They deal with disciplinary affairs examining those prisoners found breaching regulations, or found neglecting jobs, and or found committing subversive activities. They use "agents" selected from among the prisoners in collecting information on the movements of prisoners at the prison. They also participate in such discussions as those jointly held by the Rank & File Section and the Reformation Section to select from among the prisoners staffs, including "working group chiefs", "group guarding chiefs", "group reformation chiefs", "group nursing chiefs", "working team chiefs", "scavengers", and "general group chief". 25X1
- G. Reformation Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of Hamgyong-bukto, and consists of three (3) directors in all. Among the duties discharged by the Reformation Section are (a) the holding of political indoctrination programs for prisoners, (b) the holding of prisoners' thoughts discussion meetings, (c) the holding and supervision of prisoners' meetings, (d) the convention of production campaign meetings, (e) the organization of mass recreational programs, and (f) the presentation of citations to prisoners. 25X1
- H. Rank & File Section: Headed by one (1) name unknown Captain [redacted], a native of P'yongan-bukto, and consists of 30 directors including one (1) "cell-assigning director. Among the functions performed by 25X1
